Dear Members,

HAPPY NEW YEAR!

The University Club 2015-2016 welcomes you to another exciting year. With so many wonderful things that the Club has done in the past it will be a challenge to keep up the tradition, but, we shall try.

First of all, welcome to the new board members. Your presence and spark of freshness is a “good” thing. Welcome aboard Linda Burton, Jo Daron, Susan Platter, Cyrill Siewert, Steve Steininger, and Mary Swarthout.

We are looking forward to great programming from our Vice President Tim Long, and some new administrative procedures such as you will soon be able to use credit/debit cards for UClub events.

I would be remiss to not to extend a big THANK you to Kate Kroll and Suzanne Phillips for their leadership last year. T H A N X.

A final note, the door is always open via email, phone, letter, or face to face. Let’s hear from you.

Sincerely,

G Don

Wine Tasting!

Velvety - Tannic - Oaky - Intense - Flabby - Chewy
- yes, I said chewy. Barnyard, barnyard? Musky - Jammy & Creamy are just a few of the terms we learned to describe the wines we gulped, err... I mean, sampled, at the Annual Wine Tasting. What a night! The food prepared by Chef Damien was AMAZING and we all had a marvelous time learning about wine with Sommelier Kyle Beasmore. Kyle was both informative, and a superfun guy, as you can see in the photo above!

Below: Mary Emison, Linda Burton, Carolyn Anderson, Louray Cain, Rosemary Conley, Suzanne Roberts, Kay Carey, and Janie Harnett
After dinner silliness with Ruth Albright, Marilyn Brinley, Louray Cain, Naomi Mason, and Bill Perkins

Nobody wanted to leave - so we didn’t! The silliness went on and on.

New BFF’s Sally Isom and Kyle got a real kick out of each other. It’s a friendship they wanted to take to extreme heights!

Be sure you attend next year’s Wine Tasting. You won’t want to miss out on all the fun!
June’s birth flower is the rose, which has more meanings than one can count! A pink rose means perfect happiness, while a red rose says, “I love you.” A white rose signifies innocence and purity, while a yellow rose conveys jealousy or a decrease in love. What a black rose means is anybody’s guess!

June birthdays claim two birthstones; Pearl and Alexandrite! Pearls have been wildly popular for centuries because of their natural beauty. Alexandrite gemstones are extremely rare and desirable. This most fascinating stone actually changes color depending on the nature of the ambient lighting. For example, some are green in daylight but turn red when indoors under incandescent light! Others change from a beautiful teal or an alluring magenta.

The University Club of Indiana University was formed in 1912 to be a central focus for interchange and understanding among faculty, staff, alumni, their spouses, IU Retirees, and members of the community. That same year, New Mexico became the 47th state; the oversea railroad first arrived in Key West; Tokyo gave 3000 cherry trees to Washington D.C. to symbolize friendship; the Carpathia arrived in New York harbor with 708 survivors from the RMS Titanic; Harriet Quimby became the first woman to fly across the English Channel; Woodrow Wilson became President; and Tarzan the Ape Man first appeared in an Edgar Rice Burroughs’ novel.

The spirit of those early days lives on through the vitality and energy of our 642 current members. Members provide the ideas and talent that make up the quality and depth of our programs and special events. Whether your reason for being a member is making connections, utilizing the club facilities or the programming, one thing is still the same today as it was 103 years ago... Members make the difference and are the driving force of our continued growth. That makes membership in the University Club a timeless investment for the future.

It’s time for our Regular Members (not Life Members) to renew for the 2015—2016 year. Please complete and mail the form on the next page. Regular Memberships are due July 15th. Thank you!

(Life and Meadowood Membership renewals will go out later in the summer and will be due by September 15th.)

With graceful fountains and formal floral displays, its 7,500 square foot conservatory houses hundreds of tropical and subtropical plants. The Medicinal Plant Garden at the Indiana Medical History Museum was created and is maintained by Purdue Master Gardeners of Marion County. The garden features over 90 different medicinal plants, including trees, shrubs, and vines as well as annuals and herbaceous species. Nearly half of the specimens are Native American medicinal plants, while others originated in Europe, Asia, and Africa. Each plant is accompanied by signage stating its origin, what parts had medicinal uses, and what some of those uses were. The stunning scenery of the White River Gardens which includes the indoor Hilbert Conservatory as well as the outdoor DeHaan Tiergarten, will transport you far away from the urban cityscape of downtown Indianapolis to a lush, natural oasis. The Hilbert Conservatory is the shining centerpiece of White River Gardens. The 65-foot ceilings flood the space with light, and the mezzanine level provides a bird's eye view of the glorious indoor gardens below. The variety of plants and garden designs in the DeHaan Tiergarten changes seasonally and contains whimsical surprises hidden amongst the many plants and flowers. If you prefer to visit the Indianapolis Zoo, that is an option. Additional stop if time allows. Price of $50 includes lunch, all admissions and tours, and refreshments on the bus.

The lovable – and imperfect – Singing Sanders Family returns in the third installment of the popular comedy series. The story takes place in 1945, seven years since the Sanders Family first came to Mount Pleasant Baptist Church for a Saturday Night Sing. Rev. Mervin Ogletorpe has been called to preach in Texas and is giving his last service before he leaves with his wife June, who is eight months pregnant. Young Dennis Sanders will take over as the pastor at Mount Pleasant, but not before more hilarious and touching stories, and two dozen toe-tapping Bluegrass Gospel favorites. Price of $60 includes buffet lunch, table seating, and refreshments on the bus.
