“Uncle Anton’s Atomic Bomb”
Come and meet the Author

Ian Woollen was born and raised in Indianapolis, Indiana. Shipped off to boarding school at age fourteen, he eventually graduated from Yale University and Christian Theological Seminary. His first novel, Stakeout on Millennium Drive, won the 2006 Best Book of Indiana Fiction Award. His short fiction has surfaced in a variety of journals. His recent book, Uncle Anton’s Atomic Bomb, tells a tale that encapsulates the Cold War era within the lives of three generations of a Hoosier family. He says, “It’s a fictionalized family, but there are many aspects that reflect the dynamics of my family... The lives of the three brothers are ways my life could have gone.” Compliments of Bloom Magazine

Come! Invite your friends to this special holiday dinner party! The magic begins upstairs in the Faculty Room at 6 o’clock where you’ll enjoy a variety of appetizers from around the world as pianist Neal Heidler plays a variety of holiday classics on the grand piano. The cash bar will feature international cocktails and your favorite libations. At 7 we move into the Presidents’ Room for an incredible international dinner that includes wine. The evening’s program will feature a cast of characters sharing strange, but wonderful, holiday traditions from around the world. Favors, caroling, and comedy, round out the evening. Father Christmas will be your master of ceremonies and folk character La Befana will join the festivities. ANTIQUES GROUP

Our group welcomes all those interested in antiques. University Club members who are admirers and collectors are invited to join this group to study, share, and gain an appreciation of antiques. This group usually meets on the 4th Thursday of each month from September to April excluding November. December has an early meeting date. Special programs and a spring bus trip to an historic site are also planned. Yearly dues of $5 should be submitted to co-chair: Helene Jones, 605 N. Bell Trace, Bloomington, IN 47408, 812-331-0266

There is no Antiques Group meeting in November

December 10: Holiday Lunch at the exclusive Columbia Club in Indianapolis, followed by a visit to the Indiana Museum of Art and Lilly House: Tiffany, Gorham, and the Height of American Silver. Leaving by Bus from Marsh North (Kinser Pike) parking lot at 10:15 AM
Trip Coordinator: Helene Jones (812-331-0226)

The Columbia Club is "the premiere private city club in Indianapolis", established in 1889, It's not easy for non-members to eat there (they had to find a sponsor for us) but we can look forward to a wonderful holiday lunch in the Crystal Terrace, an historic dining room with original marble floors, hand-stenciled ceilings and leaded-glass windows overlooking Monument Circle. Please note that the Club maintains a strict Dress Code Policy. Attire should be "business casual". Gentlemen may not wear hats or caps. If you have questions, please contact Helene.

Our journey continues to IMA, to see their exhibit of historic silver. This exhibit comprises more than 60 pieces of some of the finest examples of American silver from the 19th and 20th centuries. The exhibit "explores how art and history came together as the United States emerged as an international power on the world stage.

The cost of this trip is $60.00/person, and includes lunch, museum admission and the bus. Please call Helene to reserve your spot. Mail your check, payable to "University Women’s Club Antiques" to: Helene Jones, 605 N. Bell Trace Court, Bloomington, IN 47408

WINTER—MILWAUKEE TRAIL

Sunday, January 24, 2016

Beginning near downtown Bedford, the Milwaukee Trail is one of Indiana's newer trails. Currently about 5 miles long, when completed it will stretch to 20 miles. This wide, crushed gravel path, follows an old railroad bed along Spider Creek, as it winds through tall trees and limestone bluffs. It gives one the impression of being in deep woods. Because it is flat, even on a snowy day, it should be easy hiking.

LEAVE TIME: 1:30 p.m. from the Kroger (south), parking lot, at the corner of South Walnut & Rhorer Road, near Wendy's
DISTANCE: 4 - 5 miles HIKING TIME: About 3 hours DIFFICULTY: Easy

YOGA

You need not feel intimidated by yoga! If you are interested in improving balance, breathing, flexibility, and relaxation, this is the group for you. No previous knowledge of yoga is necessary. Everyone works at their own level.

Currently we are meeting at Faith Lutheran while St Thomas undergoes improvements which involve our normal Yoga practice space. We are welcome to return to St Thomas once their renovation is complete sometime in the next 2 - 3 months.

Faith Lutheran is located at 2200 S High Street. Parking is up the hill and entrance to the building is at the large canopied area. Someone will meet and direct you to the area we will be using. Wendy is sending out notices with all pertinent information.

Wear comfortable clothes to permit easy movement; bring a yoga mat and a stretchy band or belt. Our instructors strive to leave you feeling stretched, relaxed and in a better place than when you came through the door.

You may join us three times before membership in the University Club is required for participation. There is no additional cost beyond your University Club membership, but we do ask that you give a minimum $20 annual donation to St. Thomas Lutheran Church for the use of their lovely facility.

If you have questions, please feel free to contact Marilyn, Svelta, or Wendy.
