Dinner 5:00 pm in the Faculty Room at the Club

Dennis James Show 7:30 pm at the IU Auditorium

Make your Halloween come alive with one of the most unique theatrical events at IU Auditorium as Dennis James provides live accompaniment to the playfully spooky 1925 silent film; The Phantom of the Opera!

The Phantom of the Opera shadows a tragic love story that will enchant and haunt the heart. The film takes place in a Paris opera house, where a mysterious phantom terrorizes its occupants. His lust for terror turns to a lust for love as he falls for the young Christine Daaé, a chorus girl. Forcing the prima donna Carlotta out of the limelight, he launches the stardom of his new affliction - wreaking havoc in hopes of winning Christine’s affection.

Enjoy a spooky Halloween Dinner together, then we’ll walk over to the Auditorium to catch this one-of-a-kind Bloomington tradition!

University Women’s Club
Speaker Luncheon
Thursday, October 08, 2015
In the Presidents’ Room, 150, IMU
Dr. Sara Stefani
Speaking on
“From Russia….Well, it’s Complicated”

Sara Stefani, Assistant Professor, Department of Slavic & Eastern European Languages and Cultures

Sara Stefani moved to Moscow shortly after graduation from college in 1993. She lived there for three years, first working for a publishing company and then a British law firm. While there she survived a fire in her apartment building, swam in the Moscow River with dead bodies, and figured out how to use the subway and other systems of mass transportation.* Prior to coming to IU in 2009, she taught at Oberlin College, Grinnell College and at Yale University, where she completed a PhD in 2008. Stefani has taught all levels of Russian language, as well as courses in both Russian and English on 19th and 20th century Russian literature, and multi-disciplinary culture courses incorporating study of literature, visual arts, performing arts, music, and film. Her research interests involve cross cultural connections between Russia and England, as well as Russian modernism, the avant-garde, literature of the 1920s, and, most recently, postmodernism. **

Winter—Milwaukee Trail
Sunday, January 24, 2016

Beginning near downtown Bedford, the Milwaukee Trail is one of Indiana’s newer trails. Currently about 5 miles long, when completed it will stretch to 20 miles. This wide, crushed gravel path, follows an old railroad bed along Spider Creek, as it winds through tall trees and limestone bluffs. It gives one the impression of being in deep woods. Because it is flat, even on a snowy day, it should be easy hiking.

Leave Time: 1:30 p.m. from the Kroger (south), parking lot, at the corner of South Walnut & Rhorer Road, near Wendy's
Distance: 4 - 5 miles
Hiking Time: About 3 hours
Difficulty: Easy

YOGA

You need not feel intimidated by yoga! If you are interested in improving balance, breathing, flexibility, and relaxation, this is the group for you. No previous knowledge of yoga is necessary. Everyone works at their own level.

Currently we are meeting at Faith Lutheran while St Thomas undergoes improvements which involve our normal Yoga practice space. We are welcome to return to St Thomas once their renovation is complete sometime in the next 2 - 3 months.

Faith Lutheran is located at 2200 S High Street. Parking is up the hill and entrance to the building is at the large canopied area. Someone will meet and direct you to the area we will be using. Wendy is sending out notices with all pertinent information.

Wear comfortable clothes to permit easy movement; bring a yoga mat and a stretchy band or belt. Our instructors strive to leave you feeling stretched, relaxed and in a better place than when you came through the door.

You may join us three times before membership in the University Club is required for participation. There is no additional cost beyond your University Club membership, but we do ask that you give a minimum $20 annual donation to St. Thomas Lutheran Church for the use of their lovely facility.

If you have questions, please feel free to contact Marilyn, Svelta, or Wendy.

Addams Family at Beef & Boards
Wednesday, November 4, Departs 10:30 AM

On stage for the first time at Beef & Boards and just in time for the spooky Halloween season, it’s The Addams Family. This Tony Award-nominated macabre musical comedy is based on the cartoon characters created by Charles Addams, who also inspired the television show that first aired in 1964. Gomez Addams faces every father’s nightmare when his daughter, Wednesday, falls in love. What’s worse, she begs him not to tell her mother, Morticia. Everything will change for the family on the fateful night that they host a dinner for Wednesday’s “normal” boyfriend and his parents. Price of $60 includes table seating, buffet lunch and transportation.
