Dear University Club Members and Friends,

Spring is in the air, and spring daffodil and tulip bulbs are ready to burst forth. We know all of us are looking forward to the warmth of spring sunshine. Other signs of spring are St. Patrick’s Day on March 17 and basketball tournaments – GO IU!

Our thanks and appreciation to Marilyn Brinley and her committee for a very successful Super Bowl Party on February 3rd.

The University Women’s Club invited Professor David Rubinstein, Kelley School of Business, to speak at their luncheon on Valentine’s Day, February 14. His topic was Ignorance As An Asset. His delightful presentation was outstanding. He thanked us for inviting him saying that he felt honored to be with us. As a Valentine’s Day extra, he concluded with a special scene from the movie South Pacific and stated, “I can see that you enjoy each other.” Then he encouraged us to enjoy being together as members of the Women’s Club/University Club.

We also wish to thank Lt Col, USAF (ret) Margaret Baechtold for her interesting presentation which will be on February 27th. She will tell us how the IU Office of Veteran Affairs is helping veterans returning from Iraq and Afghanistan become integrated back into civilian society. It is very important for us to understand what our returning veterans have been through, and Margaret will help us do that.

Looking forward to the activities for this month: the University Club Special event is: St. Paddy’s Day Party and Movie Night on Sunday March 17th. The University Women’s Club has asked Owen Johnson, Associate Professor of Journalism and Adjunct Associate Professor of History to present a topic entitled “On Ernie Pyle” on March 7th. The Luncheon/Presentation Club will offer Bill Ludlow with his topic, "Monroe County Courthouse Remodel" for its March 27th luncheon. We are offering each of these activities and many others to you as University Club members and friends. See the details in the pages below and be sure to make your reservations early.

When Bob Hammel got his first professional sports editing job, his mom had to drive him to his assignments. He was only 17. That was the summer of 1954, just after Hammel had finished his freshman year at Indiana University. He had gone home to Huntington for the summer, as students do, and taken a job at the local newspaper, the Huntington Herald-Press. But Hammel didn't return to IU that fall. He did get back though, but that was 12 years later and that's the Hall of Fame story that is to follow.

Today, Bob will share some of his favorite stories over the years as Bloomington has been his home base for most of his adult life and has been the source of his inspiration for writing.

Bob’s newest book is being released in March, 2013. He will bring copies for purchase and dedication or autographing after the luncheon.

Be sure to bring cash or check only. Cost of the book is unknown at this time.

Books Bob has written or co-authored:
1. The Bill Cook Story: Ready, Fire, Aim! Bob Hammel
2. Knight: My Story by Bob Knight, Bob Hammel
3. Beyond the Brink with Indiana: 1987 NCAA Champions by Bob Hammel
4. Buzzer Basket by Clair Bee, Bob Hammel (Foreword by)
5. Hoops Heaven: Commemorating the 50th Anniversary of the Naismith Memorial Basketball Hall of Fame by Mel Greenberg, Bob Hammel, Blair Kerkhoff
6. Knight by Bobby Knight, Bob Hammel
7. Super Scout: Thirty-Five Years of Major League Scouting by Jim Russo, Bob Hammel
8. Landon Turner's Tales from the 1980-'81 Indiana Hoosiers by Landon Turner, Stan Sutton, Bob Knight (Foreword by)
9. Hoosiers, Classified: The End of One Class Basketball in Indiana by Bob Hammel
10. N.C.A.A. Indiana All the Way by Bob Hammel (Editor)
11. NCAA Indiana All the Way by Bob Hammel (Editor), Larry Crewell (Editor)

Fundraiser Luncheon

Promoting The University Club’s Endowed Scholarship Fund

Scholarships are presented at the University Club’s Annual Spring Meeting to students who are employed by the Indiana Memorial Union, have exemplary work records and are returning to campus for future study. They must take a minimum of 12 hours of academic work and have a cumulative grade point average of at least 2.5. Thanks to the generosity of our members in 2011, we were able to award two $1500 scholarships to two very deserving students in March of 2012. Because of your past generosity we anticipate being able to do as well, if not even better, for other exceptionally deserving students at the 2013 University Club’s Annual Meeting. The University Women’s Club thanks you as you help us to assist these remarkable, hard working students through your charitable donation.

Donation checks are to be made out to IU Foundation.

University Women’s Club Antiques Group Spring Trip
April 25 and 26, 2013
An Overnight excursion to Amish Country:

Shipshewana, Indiana
Trip Coordinator: Joanne Lovell (332-7585)

Known as the “heart of northern Indiana Amish country”, Shipshewana is the third largest Amish and Mennonite community in the United States. The Amish, a Christian denomination known for their simple dress and lifestyle, moved to the area in the 1800’s, on to land formerly belonging to the Potawatomi tribes. They were drawn by the promise of inexpensive land and created a small town a few miles south of where the Potawatomi had been. When the first train came through in 1888, the town officially became Shipshewana (after the Potawatomi chief), today playing host to more than 50,000 visitors a year, drawn by the culture and traditional crafts of the people.

The price of the trip is $185 per person double and $240 for singles, and includes everything except dinner on the way home!

---Day One---

We will leave the I.U. Stadium lot #4 at 8 AM, but come a little early to enjoy coffee and goodies provided by Carol Darling.

Our first stop (at noon) is for a wonderful buffet lunch at Das Dutchman Essenhaus in Middlebury, Indiana, leaving there at 1:30 for the short drive to Shipshewana.

We’ll arrive about 2 PM in Shipshewana to check into The Farmstead Inn & Conference Center.

We will then have 3 hours or so to explore the downtown area, starting with the Menno-Hof Interpretive Center, to learn about the culture of the Amish and Mennonites through multi-image presentations and more than 24 display areas. Choose your next stop from among 100+ unique stores, carrying everything from crafts to clothes, dolls to donuts, including the Antique Gallery (100+ dealers), and Davis Mercantile (20+ shops on 4 floors). Create and eat a pretzel at JoJo’s Pretzels in the Mercantile.

At 6 PM, we will meet at Rebecca Haarer’s Arts & Antiques Shop, for a sit-down presentation by Rebecca herself, who will share her extensive knowledge of Amish quilts at her Trunk Show. Then, on to dinner at the Auction Restaurant.
At 9 AM, after a good night’s sleep and a tasty breakfast at the hotel, we’re joined by a step-on guide for a 3-hour Amish Adventure Tour through the beautiful countryside of LaGrange county, with stops at several Amish Cottage Shops. At the quaint little market, we can watch award winning cheeses being made in the Amish tradition and shop for delicious Amish noodles, or a wide selection of other tasty delights, as well as crafts, quilts, and handcrafted furniture.

Lunch will be a traditional Thresher’s Meal with an Amish family.

Afterwards, we will tour Hostetler’s Hudson Auto Museum, where Eldon Hostetler will tell us how he grew up Amish but fell in love with Hudson automobiles. He now has 50 beautifully restored Hudson cars (the largest collection of Hudson’s in the world), plus more than 48 other antique cars displayed in the museum.

We’ll start home about 4 PM, stopping at a Cracker Barrel in Gas City for dinner on your own, and arriving in Bloomington about 9:30 PM.

Wasn’t this fun?

The price of the trip is $185 per person double and $240 for singles, and includes everything except dinner on the way home!

This trip should fill up quickly, so reserve your place soon.

Impeccably restored and decorated in painstaking detail, The Mansion is available for lodging; the carriage house now serves as the pro shop. Carved into the hills of southern Indiana the course itself is lauded as scenic and one of the best legendary course-designer Pete Dye has created. We will take a short tour of the mansion, followed by an elegant lunch. There will be 90 minutes available following to either browse the shops at French Lick Springs Hotel, visit the Casino (on your own), or take a historic tour of the West Baden Springs Hotel. YOGA

You need not feel intimidated by yoga! If you are interested in improving balance, breathing, flexibility, and mind calming, this is the group for you. No previous knowledge of yoga is necessary. This group meets each Tuesday from 10-11 am at St. Thomas Lutheran Church (intersection of Smith Road and E. 3rd Street). Wear comfortable clothes to permit easy movement. Bring a yoga mat and a stretchy band or belt. We have two instructors taking turns teaching: Svetla Vladeva and Louray Cain. Poses and exercises will differ from week to week. There will be breathing exercises and a bit of Pilates also. No reservations are necessary. If you have questions, please call Louray at 339-9841.

We meet at the beautiful St. Thomas Lutheran Church in a fabulous room which seems to have been built especially for yoga as it has high windows and is carpeted and open so that it fits many people stretching out. St. Thomas Lutheran Church is located at Smith Road and E. 3rd Street. There is plenty of free parking.

St. Thomas Lutheran Church has been so good to our group that we think we should make a donation. We will begin charging $10 for the year. It will be Yoga's donation to St. Thomas.
