HIKING IN SOUTHERN INDIANA

SEEKING NEW LEADERSHIP

Since 2006, our dedicated nature enthusiasts, Eleanor Lahr and Bob Dodd, have organized four different hikes each year for the Hiking Interest Group. Participants have learned a lot about Indiana history, geology, flora and fauna. After the hike to Stone Head Nature Preserve, Eleanor and Bob retired as the official organizers of this robust group.

Although they leave big hiking boots to fill, Eleanor and Bob are hopeful that a new leader will step up to the plate. (Could that someone be YOU?!?) Interested hikers should contact Eleanor for more information on how much fun it can be to serve in this role. She has 10 years of experience to prove it!

Please call Eleanor Lahr at  812-339-4209  or email  elahr@indiana.edu

Next hike will be at Karst Farms Trail on Monday, April 10, 2017. We will meet at 8:30 am at KMart West parking lot. If interested in joining us, please email  Mary Jo Day at mjday1944@gmail.com  or call 812-361-7588. We plan on meeting for lunch after hiking. Join us at the Underground Cafe and Cupcake Company, 3631 W. State Road 46, Ellettsville. Sign up is limited to 10 people.

Participation is FREE for University Club Members! There is no additional cost beyond your UClub membership dues; but we do encourage a voluntary donation to St. Thomas Lutheran Church for the use of their lovely facility.

Long Live Santa Evita: The Life & Post-Life of Eva Perón

In a region where women have historically suffered marginalization and exclusion, and at a time when a woman’s roles and responsibilities were understood to begin and end at the front door of the house, Eva Perón radically challenged what a woman could do and be. With the likelihood that gender becomes an increasingly prominent aspect of electoral politics around the world, it is especially worthwhile to reconsider the significance of a woman who, during and after her life, earned both the adulation and loathing of her fellow Argentines.
