University Club Annual Report

The current state of the University Club is strong. We have 650 members, an increase over last year. Financially, we are on a much stronger footing; room rentals are up by $700 with the months of March, April, and May not included in that total. We are developing a budget, and have drastically cut expenses; yet thanks to the generosity of club members donating to the replacement fund, we were able to purchase a much needed new sound system and a microwave. We do appreciate your generosity!

We have an outstanding club manager in Svetla Vladeva who helps keep the club running in an efficient manner. Thank you, Svetla, for the excellent job that you do.

Our hard-working board planned a host of wonderful parties and luncheons during this past year. We kicked off the year with the always popular Welcome Back Reception, where IU Vice President Emeritus Terry Clapacs spoke about his new book on “Indiana University, America’s Legacy Campus”. October featured a Halloween party with costumes and dinner with Dennis James. In November, we held our first ever 60’s party, with costumes, potluck, games, and a live performance by the Endwright Players. December featured the wonderful Madrigal Dinner held in the beautiful Tudor Room. A brass quintet and Madrigal singers from the Jacobs School of Music performed in costume, followed by a professional juggler. December closed out with our traditional New Year’s Eve Party and Potluck. In February there was the Super Bowl potluck and the fun of watching the big game on the big screen. St. Patrick’s Day featured a potluck and professional Irish dancers. Our party season will close out on May 18, with a beautiful wine tasting dinner. If you have never attended this event, you should attend because it is a very special evening!

The past year was full of many fun and educational luncheon programs. The Women’s Club fall and spring luncheons presented an accordion quintet and music by “Threads of Grace”. A special thank you goes out to Dan and Sharon Wiseman and to Derek DiMatteo who planned our luncheon speakers over the past year. Speakers included Martha Foster speaking on “Visual Anthropology”, former Bloomington Mayor Tomi Allison speaking on “The Accidental Mayor; Steven Krahmke spoke on “The Twilight Zone“ and Ken Crawford spoke on “NASA, 56 Years of Manned Space Flight”. Dr. Rob Stone spoke about “Palliative Care” and Filippo Menczer taught us about “Social Media and Fake News”. In February, David Brenneman gave us a glimpse of the remodeled art museum. In March, IU’s First Lady, Laurie McRobbie spoke about “Women Leaders at IU”. Also in March, Kristin Leaman spoke on “The Bicentennial”. That brings us to our annual meeting on April 18 where the wonderful Marjorie Hershey will be our Keynote Speaker.

In addition to reflecting on the programs of the past year, we should also remember our many interest groups. They include Antiques, Book Discussions, Book Exchange, Duplicate Bridge, Party Bridge, Bunco, Dining Out, Gourmet Cooking, Ma Jongg, Great Decisions, Hiking, Lunchettes, International Friendship, Shop ‘till You Drop, and Yoga.

Most of all, we want to thank you, our wonderful club members, who keep our club growing and strong, by making donations, by attending events, and by inviting your friends to attend the club. We are always looking for new members and for new ideas to make the club better. Let us know if you have ideas or if you have an interest in serving on the board. We are excited about the excellent board that has agreed to serve next year. It has been our pleasure to serve as your Co-Presidents!

Professor Hershey will talk about what President Trump has and hasn't accomplished during his first 15 months and how is that likely to affect the 2018 election results.

Professor Hershey's research and teaching interests focus on political parties, campaigns, and elections. Her research examines the characteristics of party activists, media coverage of political campaigns, and the commonalities among lobbying, framing, persuasion, and the creation of organizational histories by advocacy groups. She writes a widely-used textbook on political parties, "Party Politics in America," which is now in its 17th edition, and its associated blog posts. She has published three other books of research, plus about four dozen articles in professional journals including the American Journal of Political Science, the Journal of Politics, Public Opinion Quarterly, Party Politics, Polity, Political Communication, The Annals, Social Science Quarterly, and American Politics Quarterly. Her research has also appeared in the form of chapters in edited volumes.
A big THANK YOU for the generous donations of our Members! With your help last year we purchased a microwave and a coffee pot for the Presidents’ Room kitchen as well as a new sound system and sound board to accommodate the luncheon speakers, live music and PowerPoint presentations. We still need funds to refurbish the grand piano in the Faculty Room. Our top priority now is the purchase of a new office computer to replace our ten-year-old one, which we are nursing along daily. We hope you will consider becoming a Life Sponsor by contributing to the replacement fund and mailing your check today.

Please make your check payable to the University Club. Your special gift, in any amount, will aid with the upkeep of our Club and maintain our beautiful rooms.

Thank you for helping keep the Club beautiful and vibrant as always!

Three IU students working at the Indiana Memorial Union will each be awarded University Club Scholarship of $1000 this fall. The names of the recipients will be announced at the UClub Annual Meeting on Wednesday, April 18.

57th annual Decorators' Show House and Gardens Tours

The University Women's Arts and Antique Club is planning an outing for Sunday, April 29, 2018. We will be driving to Indianapolis for brunch and the 57th annual Decorators' Show House and Gardens Tours. This year's house and garden is the Wainwright-Cochran House in Butler-Tarkington. It is a two-story, 7,113 square foot residence with a basement and attached garage that was built in 1925 by Guy Alwyn Wainright, an executive with the Diamond Chain Co.

We will meet in the parking lot at the new Kroger store (old Marsh) on Kinser Pike at 9 a.m. Depending on how many people go, the cost will be between $15 and $18. Lunch will be on your own at The Meridian Restaurant on Meridian Street. Please RSVP by April 15th or sooner, so we can make reservations. We will only be able to take as many people as we have drivers. We understand if you can't drive, so don't let that stop you from signing up. But if you can drive, please step up and let us know. We will need to give our driver $4/pp.

Reservations should be sent to Linda Burton, brtnlin@yahoo.com or call 812-369-4611 asap. This trip is in place of our Nashville trip which had to be cancelled due to low interest.

MAH JONGG

The University Club has a new Interest Group!

Mah Jongg is a tile-based game that originated in China. It is commonly played by four players. The game is played with a set of 144 tiles based on Chinese characters and symbols, although some regional variations may omit some tiles and/or add unique tiles. In most variations, each player begins by receiving 13 tiles. In turn, players draw and discard tiles until they complete a legal hand using the 14th drawn tile to form 4 melds (or sets) and a pair (eye). The Mah Jongg group meets each Friday. For more information, please contact the group chair.

Currently we have two tables of Mah Jongg and are open to new members who know how to play or are interested in learning the game. We are playing American style but may approach Chinese style later.

HIKING IN SOUTHERN INDIANA

The hiking group this year is doing four hikes, two at The Nature Conservancy properties and two on Sycamore Land Trust properties. In the fall, hikers explored Green's Bluff in Owen County under the guidance of Angela Sturdevant and the Amy Weingartner Branigin Peninsula Preserve under the guidance of Shane Gibson. We are anticipating two hikes in the winter/spring season.

Six hearty souls hiked the Amy Weingartner Branigin Peninsula Preserve on November 8th. Shane Gibson of the Sycamore Land Trust (SLT) was our guide. He provided an interesting historical perspective about the area as he guided us along the peninsula. The land was a part of Shawnee Bluffs Camp owned by Indiana University Alumni Association. When the camp was sold, 48-acres was preserved as hardwood forest with trails to the peninsula. This property just north of the causeway on Lake Monroe is nestled among the residential properties on Rush Ridge Road off Ind 446. We were welcomed to the shore by a persimmon tree with fruit to taste. Hikers enjoyed the brisk, sunny weather and good company.

Stay tuned for details of where our next hike will be. If you want to join this group, contact Kathleen Boggess, kboggess44@gmail.com.

Chair: Kathleen Boggess 812-361-7332 kboggess44@gmail.com

Our next Lunchettes meeting will be on April 27 at Mother Bear’s Pizza West.
