IU alumna Dina Kellams first entered the Indiana University Archives as an intern in 1999 and very quickly realized she was home. In a case of being in the right place at the right time, Dina filled a half time staff position when it came open later that year and continued to work her way up until she was appointed Director in 2015. Dina loves to share IU history and stories and is currently co-authoring a book about IU Bloomington’s buildings and grounds with Vice President Emeritus Terry Clapacs and Archives colleague Carrie Schwier. Their book Indiana University Bloomington: America’s Legacy Campus is expected to be published in 2017.
