Ruth DiSilvestro is originally from Shelbyville, Tennessee. She earned her B.A. in English from Vanderbilt University before studying at Indiana University for her Masters in Teaching English. Ruth began her romance with now-husband Frank in the cafeteria at Eigenmann Dorm during their graduate school years.

After graduation, Ruth moved to Atlanta, Georgia, to teach at Clayton College. But Frank’s marriage proposal brought her back to Bloomington in 1973, where she worked at IU until starting their family in 1975. After raising three children—Russell, Frank Anthony, and Liz—Ruth taught at Ivy Tech for five years, and then at the Kelley School of Business for seven years. It was there that her involvement with the UClub began.

Ruth has enthusiastically served as Vice President and as President of the University Women’s Club, as Chair of the Luncheon Club, and now as Co-Vice President for the University Club. According to Ruth: “It’s easy to be enthusiastic about the University Club! The people are wonderful, the events are fun, and the speakers are excellent! Long live the University Club!”

Marilyn Uselding attended high school in Florida before matriculating to Baylor University in Texas, and then Eastern Michigan University. With a lifelong penchant for traveling, her first job was as a flight attendant for United Airlines! After raising her children (and a few cattle) in Michigan, Marilyn enjoyed managing a Yacht Club and then two prominent architect firms in Ann Arbor.

In 2002, Marilyn met her now-husband Paul, who she describes as a “wonderful cook, shopper and partner”. Between the two of them, Marilyn and Paul have five children and eight grandchildren scattered around the country. Road trips are their “norm”.

While living in West Virginia, Marilyn and Paul deemed Bloomington, IN, as the best location to spend their retirement years. It was shortly after moving here in 2009 that Marilyn became involved with the University Club. She has served on the University Women’s Club board as Social Chair, Publicity Committee, Vice President and President; and she continues to enjoy being an instructor for our Yoga Interest Group.

Marilyn says: “The University Club has been a wonderful way for someone who had no ties to the area to become involved and meet many lovely people. My thanks to all of you for being members and for being so open and welcoming to a fellow Midwesterner. I keep coming back because of YOU!”
Among the many benefits of Membership in the University Club of IU is access to the reciprocal privileges of the Association of College and University Clubs. The ACUC is a non-profit organization of campus-based clubs with more than 100 member clubs across four continents. Our Membership in the association opens doors for you to enjoy reciprocal privileges at premiere university clubs around the world!

As part of your travel planning, you might want to check out the list of participating colleges on the website www.acuclubs.org. Then stop by the UClub office and pick up your ACUC Member Card from our Manager Susan. And enjoy!

As always, University Club Membership also avails you of an array of informative programs, special events, speaker series luncheons, interest groups, travel opportunities, and other activities that provide education, enhance communication and foster networking. And Members are entitled to a substantial discount on renting both the elegant Presidents Room and the upstairs Faculty Room.

HIKING IN SOUTHERN INDIANA

Since 2006, our dedicated nature enthusiasts, Eleanor and Bob Lahr, have organized four different hikes each year for the Hiking Interest Group. Participants have learned a lot about Indiana history, geology, flora and fauna.

After the June 28th hike to Stone Head Nature Preserve, Eleanor and Bob are retiring as the official organizers of this robust group. They aren’t hanging up their hiking boots forever; the Lahrs are simply ready to hand over the reins of being in charge.

Although they leave big boots to fill, Eleanor and Bob are confident that someone will step up to the planning plate. (Could that someone be YOU?!?) Interested hikers should contact Eleanor for more information on how much fun it can be to serve in this role. She has 10 years of experience to prove it!

Please call Eleanor Lahr at 812-339-4209 or email elahr@indiana.edu

YOGA

You need not feel intimidated by yoga! If you are interested in improving balance, breathing, flexibility and relaxation, this is the group for you. No previous knowledge of yoga is necessary. Everyone works at their own pace and level.

Our group meets throughout the year each Tuesday from 10am—11am at St Thomas Lutheran Church, which is located at the intersection of East 3rd Street and Smith Road. We gather in Heritage Hall at the west end of the building. Parking is plentiful.

Wear comfortable clothes that permit easy movement; bring a yoga mat and a stretchy band or belt. Our instructors strive to leave you feeling stretched, relaxed, and in a better place than when you came through the door.

Participate is FREE for University Club Members! There is no additional cost beyond your UClub membership dues; but we do encourage a voluntary donation to St. Thomas Lutheran Church for the use of their lovely facility.
