Dan and Sharon are relative newcomers to Bloomington and the University Club. They arrived in Bloomington in November of 2015 from Palatine, Illinois. They immediately joined the University Club with the encouragement of their friends Rick and Lois Holl. Sharon retired from full time work in Libraries of all kinds after 41 years. These include positions as Associate Director of the Indiana State Library and Assistant Director of the Elgin Ill library. Dan has been a career organization development professional working in both corporate (United Airlines, Blue Cross) and consulting organizations such as the American Productivity and Quality Center. Both Dan and Sharon were adjunct faculty at several universities teaching both graduate and undergraduate students about leadership and change. They continue to do a limited amount of consulting with libraries and churches. Both Dan and Sharon hold master’s degrees from IU. Dan’s work was in Educational Psychology and Adult Education while Sharon’s was in Library Science. They actually met at IU in 1978 and were married 5 months later. Dan is engaged in the music community playing in the Bloomington Community Band, the Bloomington Brass Band, and the IU All Campus Band. Both are active in Unitarian Universalist Church of Bloomington. They are owned outright by two Shorthaired Persian Cats. They love Bloomington and attend numerous concerts and lectures. They will be serving as the Co-Vice-Presidents of both the University Club and for one year with the University Women’s Club. You will see them at practically all University Club events.

Indiana University Bloomington is widely considered to be among the most beautiful college campuses in America. How the campus emerged from pioneer days in 1825 to the present is an interesting but complex story. Terry Clapacs, Indiana University Vice President Emeritus, recently finished writing a book on the history of the IU Bloomington campus. He will share the insights he gained over a 43 year career spent physically planning the campus on the foundations left behind by William Lowe Bryan and Herman B Wells.

Since 2006, our dedicated nature enthusiasts, Eleanor Lahr and Bob Dodd, have organized four different hikes each year for the Hiking Interest Group. Participants have learned a lot about Indiana history, geology, flora and fauna. Kathleen Boggess has agreed to organize this year's hiking outings. The Hiking Group will explore four not-for-profit properties this upcoming academic year. Sycamore Land Trust members will take the group on two outings to two of those preserves. Angela Sturdevant, Kathleen's daughter, who works for The Nature Conservancy will lead us on two hikes on TNC's properties. Hikes will likely happen in September, November, April and June. If you have questions or suggestions please call Kathleen at 812-361-7332 or email her at boggess2@comcast.net.
