The current state of the University Club is strong. We have 650 members, an increase over last year. Financially, we are on a much stronger footing; room rentals are up by $700 with the months of March, April, and May not included in that total. We are developing a budget and have drastically cut expenses; yet thanks to the generosity of club members donating to the replacement fund, we were able to purchase a much needed new sound system and a microwave. We do appreciate your generosity!

We have an outstanding club manager in Svetla Vladeva who helps keep the club running in an efficient manner. Thank you, Svetla, for the excellent job that you do.

Our hard-working board planned a host of wonderful parties and luncheons during this past year. We kicked off the year with the always popular Welcome Back Reception, where IU Vice President Emeritus Terry Clapacs spoke about his new book on “Indiana University, America’s Legacy Campus”. October featured a Halloween party with costumes and dinner with Dennis James. In November, we held our first ever 60’s party, with costumes, potluck, games, and a live performance by the Endwright Players. December featured the wonderful Madrigal Dinner held in the beautiful Tudor Room. A brass quintet and Madrigal singers from the Jacobs School of Music performed in costume, followed by a professional juggler. December closed out with our traditional New Year’s Eve Party and Potluck. In February there was the Super Bowl potluck and the fun of watching the big game on the big screen. St. Patrick’s Day featured a potluck and professional Irish dancers. Our party season will close out on May 18, with a beautiful wine tasting dinner. If you have never attended this event, you should attend because it is a very special evening!

The past year was full of many fun and educational luncheon programs. The Women’s Club fall and spring luncheons presented an accordion quintet and music by “Threads of Grace”. A special thank you goes out to Dan and Sharon Wiseman and to Derek DiMatteo who planned our luncheon speakers over the past year. Speakers included Martha Foster speaking on “Visual Anthropology”, former Bloomington Mayor Tomi Allison speaking on “The Accidental Mayor”, Steven Krahnke spoke on “The Twilight Zone” and Ken Crawford spoke on “NASA, 56 Years of Manned Space Flight.” Dr. Rob Stone spoke about “Palliative Care” and Filippo Menczer taught us about “Social Media and Fake News.” In February, David Brenneman gave us a glimpse of the remodeled art museum. In March, IU’s First Lady, Laurie McRobbie, spoke about “Women Leaders at IU”. Also in March, Kristin Leaman spoke on “The Bicentennial”. That brings us to our annual meeting on April 18 where the wonderful Marjorie Hershey was our Keynote Speaker.

In addition to reflecting on the programs of the past year, we should also remember our many interest groups. They include Antiques, Book Discussions, Book Exchange, Duplicate Bridge, Party Bridge, Bunco, Dining Out, Gourmet Cooking, Ma Jongg, Great Decisions, Hiking, Lunchettes, International Friendship, Shop ‘til You Drop, and Yoga.

Most of all, we want to thank you, our wonderful club members, who keep our club growing and strong, by making donations, by attending events, and by inviting your friends to attend the club. We are always looking for new members and for new ideas to make the club better. Let us know if you have ideas or if you have an interest in serving on the board. We are excited about the excellent board that has agreed to serve next year. It has been our pleasure to serve as your Co-Presidents!

Fine Dining Cooking Club
Spring Cocktail Party

Interested in joining our cooking and dining club for 2018-2019? The Fine Dining Cooking Club is for people who love good food, relish trying new recipes, and enjoy the company of like-minded friends. Each member (or couple) cooks and attends four dinners during the year, typically with eight to ten club members per dinner. At each, there is an assigned host (everyone hosts one dinner a year), along with a co-host and guests. In addition, we have opening and closing cocktail parties each year for the full group.

Our spring cocktail party is an excellent time to meet members of the club and decide if you would like to join. This year it will be held on June 3. If you are interested, please contact Rosemary Harvey (812-287-7911, raharve9@gmail.com) by May 15th. Thanks and bon appetit!

MAH JONGG

The University Club has a new Interest Group!

Mah Jongg is a tile-based game that originated in China. It is commonly played by four players. The game is played with a set of 144 tiles based on Chinese characters and symbols, although some regional variations may omit some tiles and/or add unique tiles. In most variations, each player begins by receiving 13 tiles. In turn, players draw and discard tiles until they complete a legal hand using the 14th drawn tile to form 4 melds (or sets) and a pair (eye). The Mah Jongg group meets each Friday. For more information, please contact the group chair.

Currently we have two tables of Mah Jongg and are open to new members who know how to play or are interested in learning the game. We are playing American style but may approach Chinese style later.

HIKING IN SOUTHERN INDIANA

Spring weather has been less than desirable for hiking in the woods. Now that the weather is getting warmer and we have had less rain, we are planning two hikes - one in the woods and one on campus.

On Saturday May 5th we will hike The Nature Conservancy property of Hitz-Rhodehamel Woods.

WHY YOU SHOULD VISIT - Hitz-Rhodehamel Woods is a large high-quality forest spanning ridge tops, ravines and upland areas. The preserve features chestnut oak forests on its dry ridges, and white oak forests in the steep ravines. In April and May, the spring wildflowers are vividly strewn throughout, and in mid-October, the autumn colors the forest beautifully. Unlike nearby natural areas, you won't have to fight the crowds to experience the best of what nature has to offer.

Hitz-Rhodehamel is located in Brown County about thirty minutes from Bloomington. We will make this an afternoon hike leaving from the parking lot of the former Eastside K-Mart. Park just south of Bloomingfoods East. We will leave the parking lot at 1 p.m. There are two trail loops at this site. We will plan to hike both trails totaling about 2 and a half miles. Both loops begin and end at the parking area, so if you need to leave after the first loop, you can.

Contact Kathleen Boggess at Kboggess44@gmail or 812-361-7332 if you plan to hike that day.

Our next Lunchettes meeting will be on May 25th at Farmhouse Café & Tea Room.
