Dear Club Members,

2015 was the 12th year the University Club presented scholarships to students who work at the IMU. Funds are generously donated by members of the University Club to support students of excellence. Thanks to your past support, the scholarship fund currently has over $47,000 in the endowment! Last year, we were able to award three $1,500 scholarships. With your continued support, we hope to do that again in 2016. Please join me in reaching out to the most important segment of our community, our students.

Thank you,

Suzanne

Indiana University School of Law alumnus Feisal Istrabadi was the principle drafter of Iraq's interim constitution. Istrabadi played an integral role in setting down the document's democratic principles, such as freedom of religion and freedom of speech. He championed a provision mandating that women make up at least 25 percent of Iraq's legislature. (He had argued for 40 percent.) Istrabadi was born in Virginia but lived in Iraq for part of his childhood. He is currently on leave from his Valparaiso law practice to serve as the deputy permanent representative of Iraq to the United Nations. Istrabadi's paternal grandfather, Mahmoud, was a member of the assembly that wrote Iraq's first constitution in 1925.

Antiques Group

Please join us on a day trip to Cedar Farm!
Laconia, Indiana
Thursday, April 28, 2016

This year we are privileged to visit Cedar Farm, on the Ohio River in Laconia, Indiana, the historic antebellum plantation purchased and restored by Bill and Gayle Cook in 1984. Cedar Farm is one of the many properties on the National Register of Historic Places renovated by the Cooks. The plantation house, known as the Kintner-Withers House, is a classic revival in design and was built in 1937. The 2,700 acre farm is unique in Indiana, being the only such complex complete with cookhouse, schoolhouse, tenant houses, ice house, milk houses and barns.

We’ll see everything the plantation has to offer on our in-depth tour of the house and gardens (electric golf carts available) and enjoy a catered lunch in the Carriage House.

On the way home, we’ll visit the Artisan Center in Corydon, a gallery and workshop representing local artists and craftsmen. Just down the street, we’ll make a final stop for ice cream at Emery’s Ice Cream, in their historic 1816 downtown location.

All inclusive cost: $54 per person

Depart: 8 AM
IU Parking Lot 4
Please arrive no later than 7:45 AM
Return: 7 PM

Seating is Limited. Payment ensures your seat on the bus.
Deadline for payment is March 18th
Payment can be made by Check Only
Please make check payable to UWC Antiques

ANTIOQUES GROUP

Our group welcomes all those interested in antiques. University Club members who are admirers and collectors are invited to join this group to study, share, and gain an appreciation of antiques. This group usually meets on the 4th Thursday of each month from September to April excluding November. December has an early meeting date. Special programs and a spring bus trip to an historic site are also planned. Yearly dues of $5 should be submitted to co-chair: Helene Jones, 605 N. Bell Trace, Bloomington, IN 47408, 812-331-0266

January 28 2016

Speaker: Bob Brown
“What's in your Drawers?”
Or
“How a drawer can tell you everything about your furniture”

Meeting from 2 to 4, (with refreshments following)
In the Presidents’ Room at the IMU

Have parking ticket stamped for ½ price rate
Program Coordinator: Suzanne Roberts (812-822-0563)

Now doesn’t this sound like an intriguing program? Although Bob started out as a high school social studies teacher in Columbus, Indiana, he made a career change in 1976 to antique dealer on the show circuit! After doing 22 shows in the Midwest and on the East Coast, he opened an antique shop and furniture restoration business now run by his son. Bob and his wife moved to Bloomington last year and we are delighted to have him as a speaker.

WINTER—MILWAUKEE TRAIL

Sunday, January 24, 2016

Beginning near downtown Bedford, the Milwaukee Trail is one of Indiana's newer trails. Currently about 5 miles long, when completed it will stretch to 20 miles. This wide, crushed gravel path, follows an old railroad bed along Spider Creek, as it winds through tall trees and limestone bluffs. It gives one the impression of being in deep woods. Because it is flat, even on a snowy day, it should be easy hiking.

LEAVE TIME: 1:30 p.m. from the Kroger (south), parking lot, at the corner of South Walnut & Rhorer Road, near Wendy's
DISTANCE: 4 - 5 miles HIKING TIME: About 3 hours DIFFICULTY: Easy
