Happy New Year!
Indiana University Health Palliative Care offers specialized care for patients with life-altering illnesses. The focus is exclusively on improving the quality of life through pain and symptom management, spiritual counseling and assistance in healthcare planning.

Palliative care is available to anyone diagnosed with a serious condition. This type of care can begin at any stage in the illness, even upon onset. Palliative options are typically provided in the hospital and patients receive a combination of curative and comfort treatments for an extended period of time. Patients also receive spiritual counseling from a chaplain and education from a social worker on medical, legal and financial options.

A big THANK YOU for the generous donations of our Life Members in 2017. We purchased a microwave and a coffee pot for the Presidents’ Room kitchen, a new sound system and sound board to accommodate the luncheon speakers, live music and PowerPoint presentations. We still need funds to refurbish the grand piano in the Faculty Room. Our top priority now is the purchase of a new office computer to replace our ten year old one, which we are nursing along daily. We hope you will consider becoming a Life Sponsor by contributing to the replacement fund and mailing your check today. Please make your check payable to the University Club. Your special gift, in any amount, will aid with the upkeep of our Club and maintain our beautiful rooms.

In most variations, each player begins by receiving 13 tiles. In turn players draw and discard tiles until they complete a legal hand using the 14th drawn tile to form 4 melds (or sets) and a pair (eye). The Mah Jongg group meets each Friday. For more information, please contact the group chair.

Currently we have two tables of Mah Jongg and are open to new members who know how to play or are interested in learning the game. We are playing American style but may approach Chinese style later.

HIKING IN SOUTHERN INDIANA

The hiking group this year is doing four hikes, two at The Nature Conservancy properties and two on Sycamore Land Trust properties. In the fall, hikers explored Green's Bluff in Owen County under the guidance of Angela Sturdevant and Amy Weingartner Branigin Peninsula Preserve under the guidance of Shane Gibson. We are anticipating two hikes in the winter/spring season.

Six hearty souls hiked the Amy Weingartner Branigin Peninsula Preserve on November 8th. Shane Gibson of the Sycamore Land Trust (SLT) was our guide. He provided an interesting historical perspective about the area as he guided us along the peninsula. The land was a part of Shawnee Bluffs Camp owned by Indiana University Alumni Association. When the camp was sold, 48-acres was preserved as hardwood forest with trails to the peninsula. This property just north of the causeway on Lake Monroe is nestled among the residential properties on Rush Ridge Road off Ind 446. We were welcomed to the shore by a persimmon tree with fruit to taste. Hikers enjoyed the brisk, sunny weather and good company.

The group's next hike will be in February so stay tuned for the details of where that will be. If you want to join this group, contact Kathleen Boggess, kboggess44@gmail.com.

Art in the IU Auditorium

When the IU Auditorium was dedicated in 1941, it served not only as a world-class performance space, but also as a showcase for the visual arts. During its design phase, President Herman B. Wells contacted Governor Cliff Townsend and asked whether the Indiana Murals by Thomas Hart Benton that he'd seen at the 1933 Chicago World's Fair were still available and could be transferred to Indiana University. They became the centerpiece for the building's grand Hall of Murals.

The Dailey Family Memorial Collection of Hoosier Art lines the hallways of the IU Auditorium. This group of over 100 paintings was collected by Mr. Frank C. Dailey and his wife Edna and gifted to IU beginning in the 1960s. The collection includes a little bit of everything, from landscapes to portraits, barn scenes to cityscapes, even animals!

Two Tuesdays:
February 13 & 20
11 a.m. – 12:30 p.m.

Nan Brewer & Katie Chatting

Ella Fitzgerald:
The First Lady of Song

Ella Fitzgerald, the First Lady of Song, was the most celebrated singer of her generation, and arguably the finest interpreter of what we call the “Great American Songbook.” Blessed with an uncanny sense of time and pitch, it’s no wonder Duke Ellington referred to Fitzgerald as “beyond category.” In this course, Mark Chilla, the host of WFIU Radio’s show of American Popular Song, Afterglow, chronicles the life and career of this immensely talented, yet surprisingly shy, jazz singer, showcasing archive footage of her live performances and trying to uncover what exactly made Ella so good.

Two Wednesdays,
February 21 & 28
7 – 9 p.m.
Instructor:
Mark Chilla
Price: $50
