Ken graduated from IU with a degree in radio and television (news) in 1962. Following U.S. Army service he began a 14-year career as television news reporter and anchor, serving at WTHI, Terre Haute, WLOS, Asheville, NC, and WRTV, Indianapolis. At the latter, he became part of one of the first dual anchor teams in Indiana. He served as director of university relations for nearly seven years at IUPUI, then became executive vice president and the public face and voice of H.H. Gregg, retiring after 18 years in 2001. Within months, he was named president and CEO of the Indiana University Alumni Association, retiring again in 2007. Among his many honors are the IU President’s Medal for Excellence, the university’s Distinguished Alumni Service Award, the Indiana governor’s Sagamore of the Wabash and induction into the Indiana Broadcast Pioneers Hall of Fame. His volunteer service to IU has continued for more than four decades. In retirement Ken has written two fictional novels, Knuckleball and An Act of Frustration.

Audrey graduated from IU with a degree in medical technology and served in that profession for 28 years. She has been active as a civic, education, and church volunteer. Her sorority, Gamma Phi Beta, honored her with its Merit Roll Award for devoted and distinguished service. The IU Alumni Association presented her with its Gertrude Rich Award for volunteer service.

The couple’s gift to The Media School at IU led to the naming of the Ken & Audrey Beckley Studio in Franklin Hall in 2016.

Big 10 University Women’s Club Conference Committee Looking for Volunteers!

We need your help!
The University Club will be hosting the Big 10 Women’s Club Conference here at IU, June 14-16, 2019. We need volunteers to help on various committees. Some jobs will be more time demanding, some very small. You can dedicate as much time as you wish. We will need volunteers to help us plan, organize, welcome attendees, participate in some activities, accompany groups and more.

Did you know?
There are 14 schools in the Big 10, twelve have University Women’s Clubs!
The last time the Big 10 Conference took place in Bloomington was in 1997. Since then the conference was held in Iowa in 1999, Michigan State in 2001, Northwestern University in 2003, Penn State University in 2005, University of Michigan in 2007, University of Wisconsin in 2009, Purdue University in 2011, University of Illinois in 2013, Ohio State University in 2015, University of Minnesota in 2017 .... to circle back to IU in 2019.

Please help us make this event memorable for our Club and for all who will be visiting Bloomington. If you can help, please email your contact information (name, phone number) to ucub@indiana.edu and we will be in touch soon.

Your help will be greatly appreciated!

MAH JONGG

Mah Jongg is a tile-based game that originated in China. It is commonly played by four players. The game is played with a set of 144 tiles based on Chinese characters and symbols, although some regional variations may omit some tiles and/or add unique tiles. In most variations, each player begins by receiving 13 tiles. In turn, players draw and discard tiles until they complete a legal hand using the 14th drawn tile to form 4 melds (or sets) and a pair (eye). The Mah Jongg group meets each Friday. For more information, please contact the group chair.

Currently we have two tables of Mah Jongg and are open to new members who know how to play or are interested in learning the game. We are playing American style but may approach Chinese style later.
