We need your help!
The University Club will be hosting the Big Ten Women’s Club Conference here at IU, June 14-16, 2019. We need volunteers to help on various committees. Some jobs will be more time demanding, some very small. You can dedicate as much time as you wish. Did you know?
There are 14 schools in the Big Ten, 12 have University Women’s Clubs!

The last time the Big Ten Conference took place in Bloomington was in 1997. Since then, the conference was held in Iowa in 1999, Michigan State in 2001, Northwestern University in 2003, Penn State in 2005, University of Michigan in 2007, University of Wisconsin in 2009, Purdue University in 2011, University of Illinois in 2013, Ohio State University in 2015, University of Minnesota in 2017 …. to circle back to IU in 2019.

Please help us make this event memorable for our Club and for all who will be visiting Bloomington. If you can help, email us your contact information (phone number, email address) and we will be in touch soon.

Your help will be greatly appreciated!

Mah Jongg is a tile-based game that originated in China. It is commonly played by four players. The game is played with a set of 144 tiles based on Chinese characters and symbols, although some regional variations may omit some tiles and/or add unique tiles. In most variations, each player begins by receiving 13 tiles. In turn, players draw and discard tiles until they complete a legal hand using the 14th drawn tile to form 4 melds (or sets) and a pair (eye). The Mah Jongg group meets each Friday. For more information, please contact the group chair.

Currently we have two tables of Mah Jongg and are open to new members who know how to play or are interested in learning the game. We are playing American style but may approach Chinese style later.
