State of the Club Address 2018-2019

We began the year with a full slate of capable officers, an exciting schedule of programs, and high hopes to continue the standards of excellence set during our Club’s many years. This is a club with a heritage dating back to 1912. We have evolved from a variety of Faculty and Staff, Men’s and Women’s Club to an overarching University Club body and a vibrant Women’s Club.

We began our year with a retreat to review our successes and strengths as well as identifying our keys to success. The Women’s Club began the year with a wonderful President’s tea and fall welcome back luncheon that included the beginning of signing up for Interest Groups. The Women’s Club has been planning for an important conference in June, as it hosts the Big 10 Women’s Clubs. This will be a chance to showcase how wonderful we are doing here, as well as learn from others. As we planned our programs, we tried some new ways of doing things. We decided on a single set of luncheon speakers to eliminate confusion over who could attend. We also decided to have a single planning committee chaired by the Beckleys with representatives from the Women’s Club, Cindy York and Kate Kroll. This has proven to be highly successful in the caliber of the programs and attendance. It also removed a lot of stress on the part of our program planners. We will continue this process. We also decided to change our approach to meals. Among the changes we adopted this year was to have the speaker’s presentation first, followed by the meal. We explored new menu choices as well as having some meals at the Tudor Room. Some of this was driven by transitions in the catering service. These changes have made it easier for people to attend our programs. It has also created opportunities for building community among our members as they had lively discussions of the programs over their meals. We eliminated the barrier of meal expense for some people who just wanted to attend the programs. The women’s group launched its highly successful interest group series in the fall. These remain a backbone of the Club. How many of you participate in an interest group?

The Club kicked off the year with a great program in September with David Anspaugh, Hollywood Film and TV Director. This was a first of many great programs. Meadowood provided excellent food for our kickoff. We had a series of meetings with Meadowood leaders, members and managers to renew and clarify our relationship. In addition, the board appointed our first official liaison to Meadowood, Julia Merkt, to streamline communication. Our fall programs were highlighted by Geraldo Gonzalez’s inspiring talk on his new book about his journey from Cuba to IU. He recently retired as the Dean of the School of Education. We continued in the fall with two programs on the opioid epidemic. Both efforts were quite enlightening. In between, we had a wonderful fun evening celebrating Halloween. This is a club that knows how to have fun! In November we also had an evening of brats and beer with music provided by the Bloomington’s Community German Band. We finished the year with Holiday season celebrations with a Christmas singing program and the famous Kate Kroll New Year’s Eve Party, an event not to be missed!

Our new year began with an engaging behind the scenes look into the IU Lifelong Learning and IU Travels program. In the dregs of winter, we had a Superbowl party. We continued in February with a highly educational program held on Valentine’s day on love and relationships as we age with Debbie Herbenick of the IU School of Health. She is delightful and well informed as a leader in the field of human sexuality. At the end of February, Glen Gass dazzled us with tales from our generation’s favorite musical group, The Beatles. March began with a string of terrific programs with Dave Blase telling us about the Little 500 and the making of the movie Breaking Away which is celebrating its 40th anniversary. Dave also had some inspiring life lessons to share with us. Superb food for this program was provided by Gentry Park Retirement Community. Our final program was one with mixed emotions. John Summerlot expertly informed us about school security and emergency management processes. John was a last-minute substitute as our scheduled speaker, David Estell, unexpectedly passed away. We finished the month with another fun event, our annual celebration of St. Patrick’s Day. We finish out the year this month with our Spring Luncheon which turned out to be a beautiful fashion show to raise awareness of the My Sister’s Closet and all the wonderful work they do. And certainly we are pleased to hear Bob Zaltsberg’s delightful talk, as well as announce our slate of officers.

The board is pleased to let you know we have had a very solid year financially, with a strong surplus of funds from our club dues, programs and especially facility rentals. This is in spite of making a number of investments in our facility, technology, and upgrades to our facility that were overdue. We raised funds for two scholarships thanks to member contributions. We dodged a bullet when some hard work by Svetla and her family kept us from water damage due to a water pipe bursting in the Union. We want our facility to look its best for our renters and for our visitors from other clubs this June. Your board continues to be interested in finding diverse voices to provide leadership. We had some stumbles this year but have learned from our efforts. The board began making some overdue changes to our Bylaws and hope to have proposed changes to you next fall for your review. Your board is an energetic and congenial group that works very hard on your behalf. This is also a group that knows how to have fun and to collaborate. This is a must do experience for all club members. A lot of the Club’s success is due to hard work and skill of our club manager, Svetla Vladeva. We owe her a huge round of applause for helping us do our work and serve so pleasantly. I don’t know of anyone who can do so many things so well. And how about a hand for anyone who has served on a board, committees, as well as interest group chairs. It has been our pleasure to be Co-Presidents this year and we wish Ken and Audrey Beckley as well as our incoming officers in both groups continued success next year.

ARTS AND ANTIQUES

Members of the Antiques Group attended St. Margaret's Hospital 58th Annual Decorators' Show House in Indianapolis. Interior and landscape designers transformed blank walls and created lush gardens and outdoor living spaces at The Centennial Estate. Over 9000 square feet, 26 rooms of extraordinary art and décor, full of inspiration! Members who have attended Decorators’ Show House in the past shared this was their all-time favorite.

The property is listed for sale at $2.1 million. Admission fee and tour proceeds will benefit Eskenazi Health.

The group had a fabulous day exploring the estate combined with a lunch at Shapiro’s Deli.

MAH JONGG

Mah Jongg is a tile-based game that originated in China. It is commonly played by four players. The game is played with a set of 144 tiles based on Chinese characters and symbols, although some regional variations may omit some tiles and/or add unique tiles. In most variations, each player begins by receiving 13 tiles. In turn, players draw and discard tiles until they complete a legal hand using the 14th drawn tile to form 4 melds (or sets) and a pair (eye).

Mah Jongg is open to new members who know how to play or are interested in learning the game. We are playing American style but may approach Chinese style later.

The Mah Jongg group will not meet during the summer and will resume games in the fall.

NEW group this year!

EUCHRE

Euchre is a trick-taking card game most commonly played with four people in two partnerships with a deck of 24, 28 or sometimes 32 standard playing cards. It is the game responsible for introducing the joker into modern packs; this was invented around 1860 to act as a top trump or best Bower. It is believed to be closely related to the French game Écarté that was popularized in the United States by the Cornish and Pennsylvania Dutch and to the seventeenth-century game of bad repute Loo.

The group will meet at Meadowood on the last Thursday of the month from 2 to 4 p.m. Bring your own snack, drink and $1 for prizes. You do not need a partner to participate.

HIKING IN SOUTHERN INDIANA

Eight enthusiastic hikers joined Sycamore Land Trust Educator, Shane Gibson, at the Dilcher-Turner Trail for a two-hour hike through rolling wooded hills, past stunning rock formations and over trickling streams. Sunny and warm weather made the hike a most enjoyable experience. A few bits of green undergrowth, signs of spring, were spotted to add to the adventure. The Dilcher-Turner Canyon Forest was donated to Sycamore by UClub members, David and Kathy Dilcher, and F. Rudolf Turner in 2013. Paths that lead through interesting outcroppings with scenic views have already been well developed by the Hoosier Hikers Council. It is a definite must on any hiking bucket list.

Five hikers were able to enjoy the delayed hike to Hitz-Rhodehamel Woods on April 22. In spite of the previous rain, the trail was walkable as it went up, down and around the Woods. Angela Sturdevant from The Nature Conservancy lead us on this vigorous outing. We stopped at the Brown County Inn for an enjoyable buffet lunch before returning home. The group encourages others to explore this property when they have a chance.

This group attempts to have monthly hikes during the academic year but the weather has not always been our friend the past few months. No hike is planned for May as graduation and gardening are our priorities this month.

Chair: Kathleen Boggess 812-361-7332 kboggess44@gmail.com

YOGA

Starting February 5th, yoga will begin at 10:30 a.m.

You need not feel intimidated by yoga!
If you are interested in improving balance, breathing, flexibility and relaxation, this is the group for you. No previous knowledge of yoga is necessary. Everyone works at their own pace and level.

Our group meets throughout the year each Tuesday from 10:30 am-11:30 am at St. Thomas Lutheran Church, located at the intersection of E. Third and Smith Rd.

Wear comfortable clothes that permit easy movement; bring a yoga mat and a stretchy band or belt. Our instructors strive to leave you feeling stretched, relaxed, and in a better place than when you came through the door.

Participation is FREE for University Club Members! There is no additional cost beyond your UCLUB membership dues, but we do encourage a voluntary donation to St. Thomas Lutheran Church for the use of their lovely facility.
