BYLAWS OF THE
UNIVERSITY FACULTY COUNCIL OF
INDIANA UNIVERSITY

1. The current edition of Robert's Rules of Order shall govern the conduct of the meetings of the Council except insofar as the bylaws make express provision to the contrary.

2. The meetings of the Council shall begin at 1:30 P.M. and adjourn at 4:30 P.M. unless business is completed earlier or a later adjournment is agreed to unanimously. The Agenda Executive Committee may fix a different time for a regular meeting or call a special meeting--providing due notice to the faculty.

3. The presence of a majority of voting members of the Council shall constitute a quorum.

4. The Co-Secretaries of the University Faculty Council shall determine for each campus the number of representatives to which it is entitled from the lists submitted by the President, as required in Section 1.3 of the Constitution of the Indiana University Faculty. The Co-Secretaries shall forward the lists with this determination to the faculty head of each campus legislative body by October 15, who shall certify to the Co-Secretaries of the University Faculty Council no later than the last day of February the names of those faculty members who will represent the campus on the University Faculty Council for the ensuing year. It shall be the responsibility of the faculty head of each campus legislative body to hold elections for campus representatives sufficiently early in the year so that this deadline can be met. The term of office of newly elected members of the University Faculty Council shall commence at the end of its last regularly scheduled meeting of the academic year.

An affected faculty member or the Agenda / Executive Committee of the faculty organization of an affected campus may request the council's Agenda Executive Committee to change a faculty member's allocation to a campus for purposes of determining the number of representatives to which a campus is entitled. After giving affected campuses an opportunity to make submissions on the matter, the Agenda Executive Committee will report its determination to the council.
4.A. Pursuant to Section 4.1.C.4E of the Constitution of the Indiana University Faculty, the Chancellors of each campus and the Executive Vice Presidents of the university are designated to serve as ex-officio, non-voting members of the University Faculty Council.

5. Before August 1st each year or another date set by action of the UFC the April meeting, the voting members of the Council, as it will be constituted in the ensuing year, shall elect the Co-Secretaries and five elected members of the Agenda Executive Committee by mail or electronic ballot using the following procedure. Members of the Council representing Bloomington shall elect two of their number to the Executive Committee. Members of the Council representing Indianapolis shall elect two of their number to the Executive Committee. Members of the Council representing the other campuses shall collectively elect one of their number to the Executive Committee. Of the five elected members of the Agenda Committee, two shall be from the Bloomington campus, two from the Indianapolis campus, and one from another campus. Nominations for these posts shall be submitted by the incumbent Agenda Committee from among the elected members who will constitute the Council in the ensuing year. Any voting member of the UFC. The Co-Secretaries shall be elected annually by the incoming Executive Committee by electronic ballot from among the ex-officio Council members appointed under section 4.1.C.2 of the Constitution. To the extent feasible, nominations for Co-Secretaries should facilitate Co-Secretaries serving for two years on a staggered basis. The results of the election shall be announced at the April meeting of the Council. Thereafter, the new Agenda Committee shall serve as the Nominations Committee. The term of office of the Co-Secretaries and of members of the Agenda Executive Committee shall be one year, commencing immediately after their election at the end of the Council's last regularly scheduled meeting of the academic year.

6. The duties of the Co-Secretaries shall be as follows:

   A. To keep comprehensive minutes of the proceedings and actions of the Council. The recording of a meeting of the Council will be retained for 12 months by the Co-Secretaries for reference by any interested member of the faculty.

   B. To prepare a summary of the activities of the Council each year and to distribute it to the general faculty.

   C. To serve as Co-Chairpersons of the Agenda Executive Committee in the absence of the President.

   D. To report in the minutes the names of those present at a Council meeting. In addition to absences, names of alternates present shall be reported.

   E. To circulate—as soon as possible after each Council meeting—the minutes of the meeting; Council documents and circulars; and the agenda, time, and place of the next Council meeting. These are to be circulated to all Council members, members of the faculty and librarians who request them, academic administrators, the main library on each campus, the Office of Communications, and the Secretary of the Trustees of Indiana University. All University Faculty Council minutes, documents, and circulars shall be made electronically available to the University community in a timely manner for three years.

F. To serve as administrators of the University Faculty Council.

G. To serve as Co-Secretaries of the Indiana University Faculty (Section 3.1, Constitution of the Indiana University Faculty).

H. To call meetings of the faculty (Section 3.3, Constitution of the Indiana University Faculty).

I. To represent the Indiana University faculty in meetings with the Trustees, the President, other officers of Indiana University, and their administrative committees, including the academic and administrative cabinets.

J. To convene, together with the appointing officer (normally the President), the review committees for Indiana University administrators.

7. The functions of the Agenda Executive Committee shall be as follows:

A. The Agenda Executive Committee shall determine the Council's agenda and communicate the agenda to all Council members not less than two weeks prior to a council meeting. All communications--including those from individual faculty members--requesting Council action, study, or advice shall be placed on the agenda or referred to an appropriate body or committee for consideration. In the latter case, the Agenda Executive Committee shall report its action to the Council which may--with the concurrence of a simple majority vote--request the Agenda Committee to place a referred item on the agenda.

B. The Agenda Executive Committee shall prepare the final draft of any new legislation approved by the Council.

C. The Executive Committee may take any action that falls within the authority of the UFC on behalf of the full Council, and the action shall have the same authority as an action approved by the UFC itself; provided that:

1. Notice of the action that the Executive Committee proposes to take on behalf of the Council shall have been given to Council members at least seven calendar days before the Executive Committee acts;
2. There is unanimous consent of the Executive Committee and agreement of the President to the proposed action;

3. The Executive Committee action is communicated to the Council and no more than four members of the Council notify the Co-Secretaries of their objection to the action within seven calendar days of such notice being sent, and;

4. The action is not subject to section 2.4.C.4 of the Constitution and does not amend the Faculty Constitution or the Bylaws of the UFC.

D C. Emergency items should be referred to the Agenda Executive Committee before being given precedence on the agenda.

E D. The Agenda Executive Committee at any time may request the Council to determine the implementation and the effect of any past legislation or action or to reconsider any past legislation.

F E. Any faculty member on request prior to a meeting shall be invited by the Agenda Executive Committee to participate without vote in the meeting, subject--however--to the exercise by the Agenda Executive Committee of its responsibility for taking varied points of view into account and for the efficient management of the Council's time. On its own initiative, the Agenda Executive Committee may invite any non-member to participate in the discussion of matters of particular interest. Faculty members, students, members of the university staff, and members of the press are welcome to attend meetings of the Council--subject to the adequacy of available space. The Agenda Executive Committee may invite the general faculty to participate in special meetings of the Council to be governed by ad hoc rules adopted by the Agenda Executive Committee.

G E. At the request of the President or of the Agenda Executive Committee on its own motion, the Council may meet in Executive Session.

H G. The Agenda Executive Committee shall serve as the University Faculty Council's Nomination Committee.
