Indiana University Principles of Ethical Conduct

The University Faculty Council approved the Indiana University Principles of Ethical Conduct to guide the pursuit of the research, teaching and public service mission of Indiana University. These principles apply to all members of the Indiana University community.

-Approved October 29th, 2013

Resolution on the Marriage Amendment

The University Faculty Council adopted a resolution affirmed its long-standing opposition to proposed amendments to the Constitution of the State of Indiana providing that only marriage between one man and one woman shall be valid or recognized as a marriage in Indiana, and that a legal status identical or substantially similar to that of marriage for unmarried individuals shall not be valid or recognized. It also endorsed the University’s decision to join the Freedom Indiana Coalition in opposition to these proposals and urged faculty governance bodies at all Indiana University campuses to adopt similar resolutions.

-Adopted October 29th, 2013

Intellectual Property Policy Revisions

The University Faculty Council approved changes to the Intellectual Property Policy to limit the non-exclusive rights of academic appointees or students to use and distribute university works they have authored in the case of a) recordings of performances, presentations, talks, or other educational or extracurricular activities by or involving the creators; or b) software authored by the creators.

-Approved February 25th, 2014