DEPARTMENT OF AMERICAN STUDIES

Proposal for AMST-G753 Independent Study (1 – 4 credit hours)

All independent work must be done in consultation with an Indiana University American Studies faculty member, unless otherwise approved by the Director of Graduate Studies.

Name of Student: ___________________________________________ Date: _______________________________

Student IUID #: ___________________________________________ Email: _________________________________

of credit hours: _______ Semester & year course will be taken: ______________________________

Rationale for Independent Work: (Describe the subject and scope of your study and explain how the field of American Studies will enhance your particular project.)

Sources and Methodologies Involved: (List and explain the type and quantity of sources you will use in your project [e.g., specific primary and secondary materials] and the research tools you will use to create your study.)

Final Form of Project: (Describe how your research results will be presented [e.g., orally, as a paper, through an examination].)

________________________________________ ____________________________
Signature of Student Name of Instructor (please print)

________________________________________ ____________________________
Signature of AMST Director of Graduate Studies Signature of Instructor

For authorization to enroll, this proposal must be completed and submitted to the AMST Director of Graduate Studies at least one week prior to the semester in which the course will be taken.

Note: Instructor must convey the final grade to the AMST DGS.