1. What is the most likely mode of transmission of the trait in the pedigree?

2. An obligate carrier is someone who must carry the mutation that produces a trait, but who is not affected by the trait (i.e. does not show the trait). Referring to the pedigree in question 1, the number of obligate carriers is: