Are you a future Truman Scholar? Do you want to “make a difference”? Come to one of the sessions detailed below to learn more about the Truman Scholarship, a major national award that provides up to $30,000 for graduate study to students who intend to pursue graduate or professional education in preparation for a career in public service, broadly defined. Even if you are a freshman, you may find a session helpful to your long-range thinking. If you are a sophomore, the IU process starts for you this semester. Juniors and seniors, you should check the Truman requirements to see if you will be eligible for the 2017 competition.

TRUMAN INFORMATION MEETINGS (You need attend only one.)

Monday, Feb. 22, 11:00 a.m.-12:15 p.m. or
Thursday, Feb. 25, 4:00-5:15 p.m.

Location: Hutton Honors College Great Room, 811 E. Seventh St., IU Bloomington

IU SPRING DEADLINE: Monday, March 28, 2016, 4 p.m.

2017 TRUMAN COMPETITION NATIONAL DEADLINE: Not yet announced but likely in early February 2017

(The deadlines for the 2016 national competition have passed.)

The Truman Foundation seeks to promote public service, which the foundation defines "as employment in government at any level, uniformed services, public-interest organization, nongovernmental research and/or educational organizations, public and private schools, and public-service oriented nonprofit organizations such as those whose primary purposes are to help needy or disadvantaged persons or to protect the environment." Scholars are required to work in public service for three of the seven years following completion of a graduate degree program funded by the Truman.

For additional information, visit the HHC Truman webpage (http://www.indiana.edu/~iubhonor/hds/iutruman.php) and the Truman Scholarship Foundation webpage (http://www.truman.gov/).