Marathon Oil Company is an equal opportunity employer. It is the policy of the Company to select, develop, and promote employees based on the individual’s ability and job performance.

The Company will take the necessary action to ensure that qualified applicants are employed and that employees are treated during employment without regard to their race, color, religion, sex, age, disability, national origin, or other protected status under applicable employment law.

The Company’s employment practices are designed to be in full compliance with the Immigration Reform and Control Act of 1986 (“IRCA”), including the provisions prohibiting discrimination based on national origin and citizenship for citizens or intending citizens as defined in IRCA. The Company only employs individuals with current authorization to work full time in the United States. (Does not include practical training.)

Manager
EEO and Placement