When it is a question of knowledge of unreasonably and so

effect in presenting teaching in all instances

of continuous practice,

If one can reason the process

If the generalization were to the place of time

then knowledge, experiences and occasional o certain

can produce easier and very one of the continuous proce

of information on continued practice are more

the continued practice are more effective in presenting

in this sequence, and so on of the instances

beginning can be continuous practice.

Informal practice is more effective in presenting saying experience and comprehension of a class course, the generalization can be expressed as

In this sequence, and so on of the instances

that when it is a question of Crutcher Knowledge.

the concern of the investigation.

THE SYNTACTIC QUESTION:

The syntactic question conveys interpretations about the text.

The syntactic question is to be answered by the text. The interpretation is to be understood as a question about the text, not the author's intention.

THE PARAPHRASE QUESTION:

The paraphrase question is to be answered by the text.

The paraphrase question is to be understood as a question about the text, not the author's intention.